Special Notice

Hello Family

In trying to move forward with the reunion this coming fall, attached is the reservation form.

We can only pray that all will go well in the coming months and that the virus issues will be at an all time low.

As a reminder, vaccinations will be required for attendees. Mask may also be required under some circumstances.

Stay tuned. I will be sending some additional information in the coming weeks which will outline some of the activities for this coming event.

If any of you have any questions or concerns, please let me know soonest.
